

I Thank God

*I thank God for the chance to have our hearts beat as one
I thank God for the chance to feel your every move
I thank God for the chance to carry you for nine months
I thank God for giving you life
I thank God for the chance to feel your beating heart
I thank God for the chance to feel your breath of life
I thank God for the chance to see your beautiful face
I thank God for the chance to hold you in my arms
I thank God for the chance to kiss you tenderly
I thank God for the chance to hold your little less than perfect hands;
they are perfect in my eyes
I thank God for the chance to bring you home
I thank God for the chance to feel your warmth
I thank God for the chance to take care of you for twenty days
I thank God for the chance to tell you how much I love you
I thank God for the chance to walk with you till the end
I thank God for the chance to say good bye and how much I will miss you
I thank God for the chance to call you my child
I thank God for the chance to be your Mother
I thank God for the chance to love you until the end of time
I thank God for YOU*
